Agram

Agram is Croatian flagged luxury charter yacht built by the Netherlands based shipyard Heesen and launched in 2008. Her sleek and sporty exterior and fantastic airy interior is designed by the Omega Architects and the Heesen In house Team.

She boasts three decks, spacious salon on main deck and sky lounge as second salon, amazing seating area on the fore deck and the spacious sundeck equipped with the Jacuzzi surrounded with the sun pads, a bar, BBQ and al fresco tables.

Agram can accommodate up to twelve charter guests in five + one convertible and air conditioned staterooms. Full beam master stateroom is based on the main deck forward of salon and feature king size bed, large en-suite equipped with Jacuzzi tub and separate shower, small walk-in wardrobe and an office. Two VIP staterooms based on the lower deck feature queen sized beds and en-suites fitted with shower. Further to the forward there are two twin cabins that are convertible into double cabins if required by her clients. Both are with en-suite baths with showers. Her sky lounge is convertible into a double stateroom with the queen size bed.

She is equipped with latest state-of-the-art audio & video systems provided in the salons and the master stateroom such as: Bose sound system, large LCD's TV's, SAT TV, Apple TV, WiFi.

Agram is powered by two MTU 16V 4000 M90 engines, each developing 3650 BHP taking her up to 24.0 Knots, while she cruise @ 14.0 Knots and max range of 1.000 Nautical Miles.
